

and denial of humanitarian assistance for the people of the Darfur region;

Whereas, United Nations officials and non-governmental organizations have indicated that the humanitarian situation in the Darfur region is extremely urgent, particularly in light of restrictions by the Government of Sudan on the delivery of humanitarian assistance for the people of the region;

Whereas, on December 18, 2003, United Nations Undersecretary General for Humanitarian Affairs, Jan Egeland, declared that the Darfur region was probably "the world's worst humanitarian catastrophe";

Whereas, on February 17, 2004, Amnesty International reported that the organization "continues to receive details of horrifying attacks against civilians in villages by government warplanes, soldiers and pro-government militia";

Whereas, on February 18, 2004, United Nations Special Envoy for Humanitarian Affairs in Sudan, Tom Eric Vraalsen, declared following a trip to the Darfur region that "aid workers are unable to reach the vast majority [of the displaced]";

Whereas, Doctors Without Borders, the Nobel Peace Prizewinning medical humanitarian relief organization and one of the few aid groups on the ground in the Darfur region, reported that the region is the scene of "catastrophic mortality rates"; and

Whereas, nearly 3,000,000 people affected by the conflict in the Darfur region have remained beyond the reach of aid agencies trying to provide essential humanitarian assistance and United Nations aid agencies estimate that they have been able to reach only 15 percent of people in need and that more than 700,000 people have been internally displaced in the past year; Now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring: That Congress—

(1) strongly condemns the Government of the Republic of the Sudan for its attacks against innocent civilians in the impoverished Darfur region of western Sudan and demands that the Government of Sudan immediately cease these attacks;

(2) calls on the international community to strongly condemn the Government of Sudan for these attacks and to demand that they cease;

(3) urges the Government of Sudan to allow the delivery of humanitarian assistance for the people in the Darfur region; and

(4) urges the President to direct the United States representative to the United Nations to seek an official investigation by the United Nations to determine if crimes against humanity have been committed by the Government of Sudan in the Darfur region.

TRIBUTE TO JON G. "JACK" LA-SALLE ON HIS INDUCTION INTO THE UPPER PENINSULA LABOR HALL OF FAME

HON. BART STUPAK

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. STUPAK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the lifetime of achievements of my long-time friend Jon G. "Jack" LaSalle, who will be inducted into the Upper Peninsula Labor Hall of Fame at a ceremony in Marquette, Michigan on April 17th, 2004. Jack's decades of service to further the best interests of Michigan workers have more than earned him this great honor.

A native of Nahma Michigan, Jack is a 1971 graduate of Northern Michigan University. In June of that year, Jack began his apprenticeship as an Ironworker and became indentured and an apprentice member of Local 783, International Association of Bridge, Structural, Reinforcing and Ornamental Iron Workers, AFL-CIO. In 1975, he graduated from Apprentice School and became a Journeyman Iron Worker.

In 1973, with his local and International Union's support, Jack studied Industrial Relations at the University of Minnesota. During that time, Jack was the first and only apprentice of Local 783 to serve the local union as a member of the Bargaining Committee. After returning to the U.P. in 1974, Jack worked his trade until taking a Staff Representative position in 1975 with Council 55 (now Council 25), of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees (AFSCME). In 1978, Jack took a position with the Michigan State AFL-CIO's Labor Employment and Development Program servicing the U.P. During his time at the state AFL-CIO, Jack took the lead in organizing the Eastern U.P. Central Labor Council and the Dickinson-Iron Counties Central Labor Council.

Jack was elected to office in the Marquette County Labor Council, AFL-CIO as Financial Secretary-Treasurer in 1976 and served for several terms. He also served seven years as President of the Labor Council and is currently its Recording Secretary.

Since the mid-1970's, Jack has also been very active in politics and worked on many campaigns, including being elected as a Morris Udall delegate to the 1976 Democratic National Convention and serving several terms on the Michigan Democratic Party's State Central Committee. He served 4 years as Chair of the 11th District Democratic Party and 3 years as Officer-At-Large of the Michigan Democratic Party. He also served as the Marquette County Field Coordinator for the Blanchard for Governor Campaign in 1982. Jack has been the Chair of the Marquette County Democratic Party since 2001.

Jack and Jeanne LaSalle have been active in every political campaign for the past 30 years. I am pleased and honored to have earned the support of the LaSalle's in my own congressional campaigns.

In 1983, Jack was appointed by Governor James Blanchard to serve as Deputy Director of the newly opened Governor's Office for Job Training. In 1987, he was again appointed by Governor Blanchard to the Mackinac Bridge Authority and later became its Vice-Chair, serving on the Authority until 1994. Jack was also a State Board of Education appointee to the Michigan Occupational Information System (MOIS) Advisory Board in 1978, where he served for 13 years and as Chair for five years.

Instead of taking a much deserved break, Jack is currently serving his 19th year as a Field Representative for the Michigan State Building and Construction Trades Council, representing the U.P. and the Northern Lower Peninsula. In addition to being an active member of Ironworkers Local 8, Jack maintains memberships with the Industrial Workers of the World, the American Civil Liberties Union (since 1981) and many other political and progressive organizations championing the cause of workers.

I also want to recognize Jack's wife and partner, Jeanne, and all her sacrifice that allowed Jack to serve so many workers over the years.

Mr. Speaker, I ask you and my House colleagues to join me in acknowledging Jack LaSalle's lifetime of contributions to organized labor and his community, and in celebrating the accomplishments that have earned him the distinction of becoming an honored member of the Upper Peninsula Labor Hall of Fame.

CONGRATULATING WINONA ONGEMACH OF CHICAGO

HON. RAHM EMANUEL

OF ILLINOIS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, April 2, 2004

Mr. EMANUEL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to extend my warmest birthday wishes to Mrs. Winona Ongemach of Chicago on the occasion of her 100th birthday on April 3.

Born in Cedar Rapids, Iowa as one of ten children, Mrs. Ongemach has lived in Chicago for the past 80 years. She has been an active and influential member of the Ravenswood community, faithfully attending Ravenswood Fellowship United Methodist Church for 60 years.

At a time in her life when many might expect her to slow down, Mrs. Ongemach remains a fixture at her church. She brings smiles to the faces of churchgoers by running pancake breakfasts, collecting soup can labels, and leaning on members who have missed Sunday church.

Mrs. Ongemach has brought her same spirit of community involvement to the Bethany Retirement Community, where she currently resides. There she reads novels, organizes monthly card parties and teaches residents card games.

Mrs. Ongemach was married in 1928 to her late husband, Rudolf. She worked for many years at Time, Inc. where she operated one of the first ever IBM computers. She also spent 27 years volunteering at Ravenswood Hospital where she knitted hats for newborn babies. An avid bowler, she participated in the Time, Inc. bowling league until she turned 90. Mrs. Ongemach also loves to travel and has visited many different islands on cruise ships.

I hope Mrs. Ongemach's many friends and acquaintances will use this milestone birthday as an opportunity to celebrate her life, her friendship and all she has meant to her community.

Mr. Speaker, I join with the residents of the Ravenswood community and the members of the Ravenswood Fellowship United Methodist Church in congratulating Mrs. Winona Ongemach on her 100th birthday. She has truly made a difference in her community and her life serves as a model that we should all strive to emulate.
